

Elpida House (East)

Location:

Edmonton, Alberta

Residence Information:

Address: 10638 – 102 Street

Edmonton, AB, T5H 2T5

Phone: (780) 479- 464

Fax: (780) 421-8434

Residents Accepted:

Men who are on Federal Parole Supervision.
Each case is considered individually

Exclusions:

Those residents who require greater supervision that we offer or have needs that cannot be met at this facility.

Description:

Elpida House (East) is a Community Based Residential Facility (CBRF) operated by Catholic Social Services. It is located close to the downtown core in Edmonton. It is easy walking distance to the city centre, recreational areas and shopping and minutes from main bus routes. The apartments are fully furnished, residences are responsible for their own shopping and food preparation

Short Description:

A community residence for men who are on Day Parole

Contact Information:

Coordinator: Ruth Anne Shaw

Phone: (780) 479 - 2464

Email:

ruth-anne.shaw@catholicsocialservices.org

Acceptance Procedure:

Residents must apply through an institutional parole officer who forwards the request to Edmonton District Parole. The request is then forwarded to Elpida House (East) for program staff to review. For more information please contact Ruth Anne Shaw.

Institutions the Residence Visits:

Staff from Elpida (East) when possible visit all Federal Institutions in Alberta

Programs:

Staff provides one on one case management and counseling. Referrals are made to the community. Clients are expected to find work or attend an educational facility