Residents Accepted:

Men who are on Federal Parole Supervision. Each case is considered individually

Acceptance Procedure:

Clients apply through an institutional parole officer who forwards the request to Edmonton District Parole. The request is then forwarded to Elpida House (West) for program staff to review. For more information please contact Violetta Patora.

Exclusions:

Those residents who require greater supervision than we offer or have needs that cannot be met at this facility.

Institutions the Residence Visits:

Staff from Elpida (West) when possible visit all Federal Institutions in Alberta

Description:

Elpida House (West) is a Community Based Residential Facility (CBRF) operated by Catholic Social Services. It is located on the west end of the city. It is close to shopping, recreational areas and major bus routes. The apartments are fully furnished, residences are responsible for their own shopping and food preparation

Programs:

Staff provide one on one case management and counseling. Referrals are made to the community. Clients are expected to find work or attend an educational facility
